About

Lily Blaisdell Hamilton began her theatrical journey with Shakespeare when she was 5 at Will Geer's Theatricum Botanicum in California where she went on to participate in their Youth Drama Camp and Teen Intensive as well as teach and direct plays. She has extensive experience as an understudy in numerous plays with their Repertory Company throughout her life. She went to high school in England where she completed an International Baccalaureate Higher Level certificate in Theatre with a 6. She studied a BFA in Acting at the California Institute of the Arts where she interacted with artists such as Qui Nguyen and Vampire Cowboys, Ron Cephas Jones, and Suzan-Lori Parks. In addition to being a working actor and director, she is the founder of an inclusion-focused theatre company called Thespionest where she serves as Artistic Director in addition to performing in and directing their productions.
